Claim No. 95.
Under Article II. Treaty of 14th June 1866, with Creek Indians.

The undersigned Dennis Marshall ⁽³³⁾ a Headman of the Creek Nation, and a Soldier in Co. "C." First Indian Regiment, being duly examined & sworn, (he understanding and conversing in the English language.) deposes and says: Whilst living on his place on the Verdigris, about six miles from the Creek Agency, ^{and sometime in October 1862.} he was driven therefrom by the Rebels under Col. McIntosh, and compelled to leave by stealth, taking none of his property with him: Effecting his escape, he reached Fort Scott, Kansas, where he enlisted, and served in the First Indian Regiment until the close of the war. This deponent further says: at the time of his flight from home, as aforesaid, he owned and possessed, and necessarily abandoned to the rebels, and lost, all the property hereinafter mentioned, and never afterwards recovered the same, or any part thereof. To say:
